Step 1: The proposal must be submitted along with the recommendation of the Headmaster or Principal of the school to the Academic Center for Personal and Professional Development in Education and Society - Building Shabtai, Room 425, P.O. Box 39040, Tel Aviv University - 6139001

Phone: 6408162, 03-6408466, 6408157
Fax: 6408157
Email: morim@tauex.tau.ac.il

Website and Facebook on the Internet: https://education.tau.ac.il/morim

Application for recommendation for the gifted and talented program or cycle | Cycle TE-TEV-TEV

https://education.tau.ac.il/morim/gifted_edu

Name of the recommended teacher:

________________________________________________________________________

Surname:

________________________________________________________________________

First name:

________________________________________________________________________

Registration no. of the mentioned teacher:

________________________________________________________________________

The teacher mentioned in the form is the teacher of the next grade at the gifted and talented program or center for the talented and exceptional, (in the case of a teacher or teacher)

________________________________________________________________________

We request that the above-mentioned teacher be included in the course for the education of gifted and talented children. This is for the next envisaged period in order to develop talented and exceptional students.

Yours sincerely,

Name of the principal/Headmaster:

________________________________________________________________________

Signature and stamp in the college:

________________________________________________________________________

Remarks (optional):

...............................................................................................................................

......................................................................................................................

......................................................................................................................